All Chief Postmaster Generals/Postmaster General,

Sub:- Condonation of irregular retention of GDS beyond 65 years of age

Sir/Madam,

Circles are sending proposals to Directorate for condonation of irregular retention of GDS beyond 65 years of age.

2. While examining the proposals on the subject, it has been observed that, Circles are sending the proposals after a gap of many years which results in delay in releasing the GDS gratuity and severance amount to GDS for which a proposal from Circle is being submitted with the concurrence of CIFA and approval of Chief PMG.

3. Circle are therefore requested to instruct all the divisional heads to verify the seniority list of GDS and ensure that, no GDS is retained beyond 65 years.

4. Circles are further requested to send the information in the following format in case any GDS is retained beyond 65 years of age and proposal is yet to be forwarded to Directorate or forwarded to Dte but condonation is yet to be issued by Directorate.

Sl.No.	Name of GDS who has been retained beyond 65 years of engagement	Date of Birth	Due date of Discharge	Actual date of discharge	Reasons for retention beyond 65 years

5 While sending such proposal to Directorate, the reasons for overstayal alongwith circumstances under which the GDS was not discharged on attaining the age of 65 years may also be clarified.

6. The above information may be submitted to Directorate within a fortnight.

(Dr. Vincent Barla)
Director (GDS/PCC)
